In Memory of Nelly Kyriazi

(curated all of Kikos Lanitis' exhibitions from 1997 until 2019)

Nelly Kyriazi studied Archaeology and Art History at the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens. From 1977 until 2001 she served as Curator at the Municipal Gallery of Athens and from 2001 until 2011 she was the Director of the Municipal Gallery of Athens and the Museums and Cultural Institutions of Athens. Over her career she organized and curated over 120 fine art exhibitions in Greece, Sweden, Luxemburg, Latvia, Lithuania, India and Cyprus, and authored over 60 theoretical texts for exhibition catalogues and books. During the 1980s she headed a project to register all the sculptures in the First Cemetery of Athens and supervised their conservation. In 1995, she initiated an exchange program of exhibitions with the Municipal Gallery of Larnaca. In 2002 she was awarded the Officier de l' Ordre de Merite du Grand Duche de Luxembourg in recognition of her work promoting cultural relations between Greece and Luxemburg.
